The owner of this three bedroom ensuited home has demanded that the property be sold. Subsequently the asking price reflects that an immediate sale is required.

Two excellent features of this home is the outdoor entertaining area which has no other word except "huge" and the tandem garage has drive through access to the rear yard. An inspection is a must if you are looking to purchase a Sandstone Point home in the early $300,000's, then this home could be the one!
