

141 Endeavour Drive Banksia Beach QLD

4 2 2

Size will surprise in this very comfortable family home located so close to the foreshore beach, transport, shops, doctors, Banksia Beach School & Golf Course.

The house is perfect for young families or investors alike and offers a low maintenance back yard and a lovely north facing outdoor entertaining area accessed from the large open plan family room. All four are king sized bedrooms with built-in robes, the master with ensuite and walk-in-robe.

For busy families, there is good separation between the formal lounge room which is located at the front of the house away from the open plan kitchen, dining and family room. The home is currently owner occupied but the current rental appraisal is $450 per week. Only by inspection can this comfortable home be fully appreciated.

Price : $ 479,000
