

22 Kate Street Woody Point QLD

6 2 3

This substantial two level home has been in the one family since the 60's and has been called home by 2 generations. It is now time that the decision has been made to sell. So the opportunity has now presented itself for a new owner to take over this prized property situated just one street from the waterfront and on the elevated side of the street.

While redevelopment options are certainly available, the current residence has loads of room for the big or extended family to enjoy as is, or renovation options to transform the home into a modern residence in a magnificent position should also be considered.

Your inspection is encouraged to fully appreciate what this grand property has to offer, however here are the main attributes;

6 Bedrooms.....4 upstairs and 2 downstairs (2700 mm ceiling height)
